RULES

1. Classes 1 to 23 inclusive shall be bona-fide growing of the members
2. No exhibitor shall be allowed more than one prize for the same description of article in any one class and shall neither stage more or less articles than the schedule specifies. The committee shall have power to enquire whether items exhibited in all classes are the bona-fide growth of the exhibitor and if not, such exhibitor shall forfeit his entrance money, lose claim on the Association and be excluded from membership thereof.
3. All exhibits at this show shall be bona-fide growing of the exhibitor and not a collection from several gardens. If it is proved that an exhibit is not the bona-fide growing of the exhibitor, he shall forfeit his entrance money and prize money and shall be excluded from exhibiting at any future show of the Association. The committee shall have power to visit the garden of any exhibitor either before or after the show.
4. The judges shall have the power to withhold, at their discretion, prizes for inferior articles or where there are insufficient entries.
5. Strict attention must be paid to the number and quality of each article marked in the schedule. Any exhibitor staging more or less will be disqualified in such classes.
6. Entries must be received by 12.15 pm and staging completed by 12.30pm. Judging will commence at 1.00pm.
7. Any objection other than on the merit of the awards made by the judges, after the judge's decision is known, shall be made in writing accompanied by a deposit of 15p, and handed to the secretary not later than 5.00 pm on the day of the show. If the objection is sustained, the deposit will be refunded, otherwise it will be forfeited.
8. All disputes in connection with the show are to be referred to the committee and their decision shall be final. No legal proceedings to be taken.
9. Definition of Amateur: Any person who gains his livelihood by growing for sale or who is employed as a paid gardener or any person who employs whole - time labour is not eligible to compete in Amateur Member's Classes.
